Set in open countryside on edge of market town of Pickering these nine character stone cottages with traditional pantile roofs, stone fireplaces & beamed ceilings are tastefully furnished with the emphasis on comfort and relaxation.

Our cottages set around a secluded courtyard provide a perfect base for those seeking an open countryside setting whilst within a short walk of the picturesque ancient market town of Pickering, famous for its medieval castle and the North York Moors Steam railway.

The cottages are spacious, superbly equipped, furnished with the emphasis on comfort and relaxation. They have traditional pan tile roofs, stone fireplaces, beamed ceilings and large gardens with an extensive play area and private parking.

The North York Moors are on the doorstep with their spectacular rolling hills, heather clad moorland, woodland and forest, also some of the finest stately homes, castles and museums. A sort drive away is Yorkshires scenic heritage coast of Filey, Scarborough, Whitby, and the Historic City of York.

All the cottages have a 4 Star Visit Britain grading and EnjoyEngland "Gold Award" for exceptional quality of accommodation and customer care grading,
