Sleeps 9 (10 by arrangement). 5 bedroom self-catering country home with access to a private pool, gym & tennis court, tucked away in Swaledale, near Richmond. Fully refurbished and enjoying awe-inspiring views over Swaledale and the River Swale.

The Old Vicarage enjoys one of the best locations in the Yorkshire Dales and quite possibly the whole of England!

Nestled into a wooded hillside with breathtaking views of the Swale Valley, this elegant country house is located at the centre of picturesque Swaledale – the most northerly dales of the National Park. It is only a short drive from the historic market town of Richmond with its famous Norman Castle and many other amenities such as theatre and cinema. There are also plenty of pretty traditional Dales villages and exciting visitor attractions to explore nearby.

The house itself, which accommodates up to nine people (ten by arrangement), is surrounded by flowering meadows and is set in enclosed spacious grounds with its own private stretch of river. Nature abounds and the only sounds to be heard are the call of wild birds and occasional conversation of distant farm animals. With no other neighbours, it is quite simply the perfect rural retreat.

During their stay, guests have exclusive use of private leisure facilities, including a magnificent 16-metre indoor heated swimming pool, Jacuzzi, steam room, sauna and large, fully equipped gym, with table tennis and table football. Outside is an ornamental walled garden, football pitch and tennis court.

With every comfort in mind, The Old Vicarage has been thoughtfully decorated and furnished to create a relaxed and sumptuous place to stay. Carefully chosen antiques and contemporary furniture sit side-by-side with original artworks, and the small touches such as fresh floral arrangements and a generous welcome hamper, containing free-range eggs from the owner's hens, don't go unnoticed.

Unsurprisingly, The Old Vicarage has achieved a 5-star Gold Award from VisitEngland – the highest rating possible under the nationally recognised scheme – every year since opening.

Many guests return to The Old Vicarage year after year, and this characterful house with its unique facilities and extraordinary location is an ideal destination for families and friends who are looking to relax, re-charge and re-vitalise, as well as having fun whilst exploring this popular holiday area.
